700 Purpose

The purpose of this Section is to permit signs that will not by their reason, size, location, construction, or manner of display endanger the public health, safety, and general welfare and to permit and regulate signs in such a way as to support and complement land use objectives set forth in the purpose of this Zoning Resolution.

701 Definitions

Sign: Any surface, fabric, device or display which bears lettered, pictured or sculptured matter, including forms shaped to resemble any human, animal, or product, designed to convey information visually and which is exposed to public view. The term sign shall include all structural members. A sign shall be constructed to be a display surface or device containing organized and related elements composed to form a single unit. In cases where matter is displayed in a random or unconnected manner without organized relationship of the components, each such component shall be considered to be a single sign.

Sign area: That area enclosed by one continuous line, connecting the extreme points or edges of a sign. The area shall be determined using the largest sign area or silhouette visible at any one time from any one point. This area does not include the main supporting sign structure, but all other ornamented attachments, inner connecting links, etc., which are not a part of the main supports of the sign are to be included in determining sign area.

- A. Any sign with three (3) or more sign faces shall have the area calculated by summing the area of the sign faces and dividing by two (2).
- B. On a two-sided (2) sign, only one (1) face is counted in computing the sign's area.
- C. Painted upon or applied to a building: The area includes all lettering, wording, and accompanying designs or symbols together with any background of a different color than the natural color of the building.
- D. Individual letters or figures: When attached or painted on a surface - a building, canopy, awning, wall, or window - the area is that of the smallest rectangle or other geometric shape that encompasses all of the letters or symbols.
- E. Sign frontage: The length in feet of the ground floor level of a building front or side facing a street (or facing a right-of-way accessible from a street) that is occupied by an individual business.

Sign, Abandoned: A sign the use for which it represents having been discontinued for any period of time.

Sign, Banner: A sign intended to be hung either with or without frames, possessing characters, letters, illustrations, or ornamentations applied to paper, plaster, or fabric of any kind. National flags, flag of political subdivisions, and symbolic flags of any institution or business shall not be considered banners.

Sign, Billboard: A non point-of-sale sign which advertises a business, organization, event, person, place or thing, unless such sign is more specifically defined herein.

Sign, Changeable copy (bulletin board): A sign designed so that characters, letters, or illustrations can be changed or rearranged without altering the face or the surface of the sign. This shall also include the changing of copy on a billboard.

Sign, Directional: A noncommercial sign of an instructional nature, such as "parking," "exit," or "entrance," displayed solely for the convenience of the public. No more than twenty-five percent (25 percent) of such sign shall be devoted to the name or logo of the property, business, or profession on the site and shall contain no business advertising, product trade name identification, or listing of any product sold or offered on the premises.

Sign, Freestanding: A sign which is supported by structures or supported in or upon the ground and independent of support from any building not to include portable or mobile signs.

Sign, Home occupation: A sign not to exceed two (2) square feet in area, have no artificial lighting, and have no display that indicates from the exterior of the building that it is being utilized for any purpose other than a dwelling, maximum of one (1) sign. Sign, Mobile or portable: A sign which is affixed to a frame having wheels or capable of being carried, or otherwise portable which does not have a permanent foundation and cannot withstand the stress and wind loads of the building code and designed to stand free from a building or structure. Signs to be affixed to the surface of real estate shall be deemed freestanding signs and not mobile signs, but the mere removal of wheels or temporary securing of a sign to the surface of real estate shall not prevent its being a mobile sign.

Sign, Marquee: A sign attached to and made part of a marquee. A marquee is defined as a permanent roof-like structure projecting beyond a building wall at an entrance to a building or extending along and projecting beyond the building wall and generally designed and constructed to provide protection against the weather.
